

Our next book in the line-up is Meant for Good, Fundamentals of Womanist Leadership by Rev. Dr. Debora Jackson, who will also be joining our discussion on African American women have survived nearly 400 years of oppression by crafting a culture of resistance, perseverance in the struggle, and the ability to adapt while remaining undergirded by faith. Using the biblical story of Joseph's exile and rise to power in Egypt, author and pastor Debora Jackson highlights leadership fundamentals gleaned from that story and from the stories of black women's experiences that may be redeemed for the good of ourselves and our organizations. This book offers many incentives for receiving God's gifts of endless possibilities. Initiating a leadership blueprint that welcomes her-stories to compliment his-stories, using biblical stories, African history, and African American experiences to demonstrate an appreciation for the fact that there is room for 'All God's Children.'
