Sneak Peek at the 2017
Annual Gathering

From the Desk of the Executive Director/Minister

By Rev. Dr. Robert D. Cochran

The Columbia Association of Baptist Churches began in 1877. That group changed its form in 1937 and took on the name of the District of Columbia Baptist Convention. The intents of 1877 give us the basics of our life together. From the very beginning, the founders of the Columbia Baptist Association treasured the life of the local church. One sees that value in the very name of the association. Even though the local congregation was a treasured instrument in the hand of God, the founders also recognized that the mission of God was even older than the expression of the church. The greatest value was God's mission as expressed through churches.

There were five different ministries which the Columbia Association took up. These included:

The establishment of new churches,

The care of neighborhoods that existed without Baptist churches,

The strengthening of churches in decline (fallow fields),

The establishment and strengthening of Sunday Schools, and Temperance.

The D.C. Baptist Convention still focuses on all of these ministries and on some of the ministries that has grown out of them. D.C. Baptists continue to start new congregations. We continue to find ways to care for neighborhoods that have no Baptist witness, although these seem to be now more institutions and communities rather than actual physical neighborhoods. D.C. Baptists still care for congregation, those open to receiving such assistance, which are in decline. Each congregation still is valued for the life God gives it, for the autonomy which we treasure. Within each church we still support Discipleship through the Sunday Schools and Christian Education. Those early Sunday Schools led to Discipleship but also were used as the means to reach the newly arrived, African Americans, immigrants and college students. Temperance was seen as the means to address myriad social challenges in 1877, including poverty, family abandonment, abuse of workers and many others. This interest opened D.C. Baptists to the important social ministries in which D.C. Baptists excel today.

D.C. Baptists do not have to go "back to basics." We continue to work out the ministries to which the Baptists of 1877 felt called, ministries still needed today.

A satellite image of Hurricane Harvey, showing a large, dense, white cloud structure over the Gulf of Mexico. The hurricane's eye is visible as a bright white circle in the center. The surrounding clouds are thick and white, contrasting with the darker blue and green of the ocean and the brownish-green of the landmasses visible at the edges.

HURRICANE HARVEY

Millions of our sisters and brothers in Texas and neighboring states continue to be threatened by Hurricane Harvey and its associated flooding. Our churches, pastors and lay members know many family members and friends in Texas and Louisiana who now suffer from the devastation. At times like this, the Church is called to be an example and active participant in the recovery and healing process. While the exact extent of the needs will not be known for weeks, we ask that you continue to pray for those who suffer from this historic hurricane. You can donate to the relief efforts through the D.C. Baptist Convention. We will forward all monies designated for the relief of those overwhelmed by Hurricane Harvey to our partner Baptist agencies providing relief efforts in the wake of the terrible destruction.

WHY DO WE PRAY?

By Jason Farr (Newspring CC)

One of my favorite TV personalities is talk show host Conan O'Brien.

If I told you I was friends with Conan O'Brien, you'd ask, "How often do you get to see him?"

If I answered, "I haven't met him yet, but I've watched his show every day and I've read a lot of articles about him," you'd say I was nuts. We can't know someone or have a real relationship without spending time together.

God wants a relationship with us. It's why He sent Jesus to die for our sins — so we can have a relationship again.

Why do Christians pray? We grow our relationship with God through reading the Bible and prayer. Reading the Bible is how we hear from God, and prayer is how we speak to Him in return. This process of talking to God, listening for His voice and reading His Word is how we spend quality time with our Heavenly Father.

Prayer turns one-way research into two-way communication.

Only reading the Bible doesn't give me a relationship with God. People who don't believe in God have read the Bible. Some atheists can quote the Bible better than some Christians, but they don't have a relationship with God. Prayer is an integral part of gaining a relationship with God, because prayer turns one-way research into two-way communication.

4 Things That Happen When We Pray

1. Closeness (Jeremiah 33:2-3)

Prayer is intimate and personal. When Christians pray to Jesus, sharing with Him on a personal level helps us to trust Him more.

2. Peace of Mind (Philippians 4:7)

We can get bogged down by the negative thoughts in our heads. When we take our worry and doubt to God in prayer, we gain insight to overcome our negative thoughts. When we pray, with thanksgiving and petition, God gives us peace unlike anything we can imagine.

3. Guidance (Romans 8:26)

We don't always know what to pray for when we pray, but God does. Romans 8:26 says, "...the Spirit helps us in our weakness. We do not know what we ought to pray for, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us..." When we humbly seek God, the Holy Spirit expresses in prayer what we can't articulate in words.

4. Healing (James 5:16)

God heals us as we pray for ourselves and each other. Trying to fix our problems ourselves is a fruitless effort, so we take them to the One who can. God created the universe and everything in it. Help is waiting for us if we'll humble ourselves and ask for it.

THE PURPOSE OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

1) He convicts the world of sin, righteousness, and of judgment.

John 16:8-11 "And when He has come, He will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of righteousness, because I go to My Father and you see Me no more; of judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged."

2) He transforms us in the sight of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 And such were some of you. But you were washed, but you were sanctified, but you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus and by the Spirit of our God.

3) He helps us to remember the word of God.

John 14:26 "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you."

4) He helps us to lead a godly life.

Galatians 5:22-23 But the fruit (evidence) of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

5) He gives us spiritual gifts for the edification of believers.

1 Corinthians 12:4-7 There are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit. There are differences of ministries, but the same Lord. And there are diversities of activities, but it is the same God who works all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the profit of all:

1 Corinthians 14:12 Even so you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, let it be for the edification of the church that you seek to excel.

6) He is our guarantee of eternal life with God.

2 Corinthians 1:21-22 Now He who establishes us with you in Christ and has anointed us is God, who also has sealed us and given us the Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee. Ephesians 1:13-14 In Him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory.

7) He empowers us to be witnesses for our Lord Jesus Christ.

John 15:26 "But when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will testify of Me."

Acts 1:8 "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be My witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Acts 4:33 And with great power the apostles gave witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all.

1 Corinthians 2:4-5 And my speech and my preaching were not with persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God.
